

Challenging Personal Privacy Legislation Compliance

Personal Privacy Legislation, Principle 10: Challenging Compliance recognizes the right of the individual to challenge an organization’s compliance with the 10 stated privacy principles.

Personal information you provide below will only be used to complete your request to challenge the organization’s compliance with personal privacy legislation. This form must be completed before we may investigate your complaint.

Title (optional)	Last Name	Middle Initials	First Name
AMA Member Number		Email Address
Mailing Address	St/Ave	City	Province	Postal Code
Daytime Telephone Number ()		Evening Telephone Number ()		Fax Number ()
Please indicate the best time to contact you, 8 a.m. – 4 p.m., Monday to Friday, as well as any contact restrictions.

A. On whose behalf are you making this complaint?

- Are you making this complaint on your own behalf?
- Are you making this complaint on behalf of another individual? (Please attach proof you may legally act for that individual.)

B. Indicate the name of the branch(es) or program(s) you believe may have mishandled your personal information.

C. Specify how you believe we may have failed to comply with privacy legislation in handling your personal information. Provide us with as much detail as possible, including relevant dates, forms used, etc.

- i. If you want to challenge compliance on behalf of another individual, you must attach proof that you may legally act for that individual (e.g., power of attorney, guardianship or trusteeship).

D. Please sign and date this form and send it to the Privacy and Records Advisor, Alberta Medical Association, 12230 106 Avenue NW, Edmonton Alberta T5N 3Z1.

Signature	Date
------------------	-------------

For Office Use Only

Date Received:	Tracking Number Assigned:
Comments:	