

Recipients chosen for AMA/CMF Medical Student Bursary

This year, 72 Alberta medical students have been chosen to each receive a $1,500 AMA/Canadian Medical Foundation (CMF) Medical Student Bursary.

Created in 2000, the bursary helps alleviate the financial burden faced by medical students in Alberta. The AMA/CMF Medical Student Bursary program is made possible by the Canadian Medical Foundation, a charitable organization dedicated to the support of medical education in Canada and through the generosity of CMF's financial donor, MD Financial. The AMA matches CMF's donation each year.

Thank you to all students who applied. Recipients of the 2013 bursary follow.
